

Backgrounder on May Cohen Leadership Award Recipient

Dr. Donna E. Stewart

Major Accomplishments:

- Graduated MD from Queen's University – Gold Medalist
- Interned at Toronto General Hospital
- 1 year Family Practice in Northern Ontario
- Residency in Psychiatry – London - England, Los Angeles, Toronto
- Minister of Health Gold Medalist for Psychiatry Exams
- Appointed to Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto
- Started Psychiatric Consultation Service for Medicine, Surgery and Obstetrics and Gynecology at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto
- 1993 Appointed Professor of Psychiatry and Obstetrics and Gynecology
- 1995 Appointed Chair in Women's Health – First in the world
- 2004 Appointed University Professor – Highest Academic Honor at University of Toronto

HONOURS

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 2005 | Honorary Member of the World Psychiatric Association for contributions to international mental health |
| 2005 | Recipient May Cohen Leadership Award – Federation of Medical Women of Canada |
| 2004-present | University Professor, University of Toronto |
| 2004-present | President of International Association of Women's Mental Health |
| 2003-present | Distinguished Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association |
| 1999-present | Chair of World Psychiatric Association Section on Women's Mental Health |
| 1998-present | Appointed Women's Health Council of Ontario Executive Committee |
| 1995-present | Fellow of the American College of Psychiatrists |
| 1993-present | Fellow of the Academy of Psychosomatic Medicine |
| 1992-present | Fellow of the International College of Psychosomatic Medicine |
| 1991-present | Australian Society for Psychosomatic Obstetrics and Gynecology, Elected Honorary Member |
| 2003 | Recipient of the Symonds Award, American Psychiatric Association |
| 2003 | Margaret Mead Memorial Lecturer - Melbourne, Australia |

2002	Distinguished Lecturer World Psychiatric Congress – Yokohama, Japan
2001	Robin Hunter Memorial Lecture, University of Toronto
2001	Master Educator Clinical Consultation, American Psychiatric Association, New Orleans
2001	Distinguished Member Lecture of the American Psychiatric Association, New Orleans
2000	Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada – Visiting Professor in Medical Research
2000	Gibbs Leadership Award of the Jacob’s Institute of Women’s Health (with I. Hyman, S Geruge, F Ahmad)
1999	Simon Bolivar Gold Medal for Contribution and Commitment to International Women’s Health
1999-2002	Chair of American Psychiatric Association Committee on Women
1998-2002	Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association
1998	Mount Sinai Hospital Women’s Achievement Award for Violence Against Women
1998	Commonwealth Secretariat Award for Excellence in Women’s Health
1998	Distinguished Member Lecture for Canadian Psychiatric Association
1997	Toronto Salute to the City - selected as one of Toronto’s most outstanding people
1996	Élan National Award for the Advancement of Women’s Health (for Symposium Series on Women’s Health, 1994-1996)
1994-2000	Elected to Governing Council of the Academy of Psychosomatic Medicine
1988-1994	Ontario Allergy Society, Elected Honorary Fellow
1990-1994	Marcé Society for Puerperal Disorders, Elected to Board of Directors
1989-1990	Canadian Psychiatric Association – Section of Psychosomatic Medicine, Elected Chair
1989-1990	American Society for Psychosomatic Obstetrics and Gynecology, Elected President
1989-1995	International Society for Psychosomatic Obstetrics and Gynecology, Elected to Board of Directors
1989-1994	U.S. National Council Against Health Fraud Elected to Board of Directors
1971	University of Toronto, Minister of Health Gold Medal for Standing First in D. Psychiatry Exams